

Buyer Information No 1 – Capital Requirements

The purchase of your new Supermarket is a huge investment, to assist you in the purchase process and the future profitability, it is important to understand the amount of Capital required to operate a Supermarket.

The below are the typical Capital Requirements to own and operate a Supermarket:

- Business Purchase Price
- Stock On Hand
- Stamp Duty
- Legal / Accounting / Bank Fees
- Working Capital Requirements (Cash Flow)
- Lease Bond / Bank Guarantee (Average 3 – 6 months)
- Supplier Bond / Bank Guarantee (SPAR Warehouse / Direct Suppliers)
- Service Bonds (Electricity etc.)
- Marketing / Advertising Budget
- Business Establishment Costs (Insurance / Workers Comp. etc.)

SPAR Australia Limited

E: newbusiness@spar.com.au